America's favorite fiddler Bob Ryman to perform at Weinberg Village Assisted Living Residences

Tampa, Florida (March 10, 2009): The Harry & Jeanette Weinberg Village Assisted Living Residences will be honored to have Americas favorite fiddler Bob Ryman perform on Saturday March 14th at 6:30 PM. Bob Ryman is a close family friend of one of the residents and he is making a special trip from Houston Texas to perform for Weinberg Village family members and residents.

Bob Ryman plays favorites from Bluegrass to Broadway, from Country to Classics. He takes his audience on a musical journey with such showstoppers as THE ORANGE BLOSSOM SPECIAL, THE HOT CANARY, THE FLIGHT OF THE BUMBLEBEE AND THE WILLIAM TELL OVERTURE. His repertoire includes music from RIVERDANCE, FIDDLER ON THE ROOF. Bob is unique among entertainers. Not only a master of the violin, be he explodes onto the stage with singing and comedy in an act that can be described as pure excitement.

Bob Ryman was born in Houston, Texas into a musical family. He began violin lessons at the age of eight, studying with Joseph Gallo, the concertmaster of the Houston Symphony. While in high school, his family moved to Hollywood, Florida. At the age of fifteen, Bob was performing with the Hollywood Philharmonic. Bob graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a degree in Radio, Television and Film. While in Austin Bob expanded his technique on the violin, learning folk and country fiddling, jazz, and Broadway show tunes. He also began composing original music for the fiddle.

Bob Ryman is an exciting showman who plays the violin with passion and intensity. He gives life to the fiddle, enveloping his audiences with something for every taste and all ages. Bob Ryman plays at corporate venues, major cruise lines and has appeared also Trump Castle, Atlantic City; Caesar's Palace, Las Vegas; and the Florida Strawberry Festival just to name a few. "An incredible showman and fantastic performer, he brought down the house" - THE LAS VEGAS SUN. "Dazzling technique.....violin virtuoso." "So much energy and talent....a huge success." - THE PHILADELPHIA ENQUIRER
